

Sonitrol fights retail shrinkage on multiple fronts.

EVERY DOLLAR COUNTS

In an industry study, just over two dozen U.S. retailers reported shoplifting and employee theft losses of more than $4.7 billion in a single year. They caught 1 out of every 28 employees stealing. A larger study of U.S. retail chains found that shoplifting cost retailers nearly $10 billion in losses, and employee theft cost $15 billion.

Those shrinkage losses don't include other threats to your bottom line: losses from robbery or burglary, fire or vandalism, or fraudulent injury claims, to name a few.
